

THE COURTS.

MCKANE ARGUMENTS CLOSED. NO DECISION FOR SEVERAL WEEKS—OTHER COURT OF APPEALS DECISIONS.

Albany, Oct. 30.—The arguments in the McKane case were closed to-day before the Court of Appeals. The court will not be affirmed on the judgment of the lower court in the case of the People against Sara Chase, appellant. This was an appeal from a verdict convicting defendant, Sara B. Chase, of manslaughter in attempting malpractice in the case of Margaret Mazzoni. The defendant was sentenced to nine years in State prison.

Judgment was affirmed with costs in the case of John Norris, plaintiff, respondent, against the Brooklyn City Railroad Company, appellant. The Brooklyn City Railroad Company, appellant, was affirmed in the City Court of Brooklyn, affirming a judgment of the same court awarding the plaintiff, Norris, $50,000 in a suit for the breaking of a platform on a car on January 25, 1892.

By a decision to-day against the New-York City Police Commissioners, appellants, Mitchell is to be reinstated on the police force.

Morris and Zachariah E. Smith, all of the firm of C. H. Murray & Co., who did business as the Louisiana Lottery Company, for an accounting.
